

SPECIAL VALUES IN RAINCOATS

As an all around garment the Raincoat is becoming more and more a necessity. How comfortable a garment of this kind on a rainy day—on a dusty day—on a windy day for riding or walking. Then, too, they are made up in such pretty cloths that they serve nicely for a dress garment and are good thruout several seasons.

Here's the best one yet, made from Priestley's Cravenetted English Rosberry cloths. Their particular weaves permit of such extraordinary "cravenetting" that they are not only spot proof but absolutely waterproof. They are serviceable and wearable in all climates, all weather and at all times and they will never lose their waterproof quality or handsome silk luster.

A larger range of styles than we have carried before are now in our stock at $15.00. Then there are the Rubberized Coats that have won such popularity in styles that are different and of the new patterns in silks. Prices from $10.00 to $20.00.

We are getting more new Suits nearly every day, Suits with new touches of style that have recently caught on to the popular fancy. Some very special values at $12.50 to $18.00.

The Homer Fitts Company

are different. They have more STYLE and are BETTER WEARING than the advertised makes, because the cost of the advertising is put into the Shoe instead of the magazine and periodicals. Let us show you the smartest lines of Women's Oxfords in town.

A. W. Daley is in receipt of letters from old intercity players who would like to come back to Vermont next season. There is any prospect of base ball. Harris, who put up such a good game here on third before going into the New England league, would like to return, as would Jennings, a fast second baseman, who was owned by Cleveland at the time he came here, but was obliged to go back.

When the Levanon club brought to Worcester last week, Abrah Glover Salmon of Boston, it performed a great service in the advancement of music in Worcester. Mr. Salmon not only treated his audience to an artistic piano recital, but he also explained many of the personal characteristics of the composers, whose works he interpreted. He has a pleasing and attractive personality, and his extensive travels in America, England, Russia and Germany have given him that confidence in public speaking which has made him an ideal entertainer.
